

New Yorks Lost First of Series to Decide Sixth Place--Russell Ford Emery Ball Inventor

Hartzell Literally Kicks a Game Away

Gets in Way of Cook's Smash in Tenth, Going to Bench Instead of Third.

BROWNS' BATS SETTLE IT

Fisher Is Batted Harder Than James, but Escapes Until Darkness Closes.

A chance to pass the Browns was missed by the New Yorks yesterday. Peck's pupils lost a ten inning game in St. Louis instead of winning. The Athletics won in Cleveland, and the Red Sox won twice in Detroit. The Washingtons broke even in Chicago and gained slightly on the Tigers.

Yesterday's Results.

- St. Louis 3; New York 2 (evening). Philadelphia 3; Cleveland 2 (evening). Boston 2; Detroit 2 (evening). Boston 2; St. Louis 3; Detroit 2 (evening). Boston 2; Washington 3; Chicago 1 (evening). Chicago 2; Washington 3; Detroit 2 (evening).

Detailed Standing of the Clubs.

Team	W	L	T	W	L	T	Games Lost	Per Cent
Philadelphia	9	11	11	14	12	8	62
Boston	12	13	11	11	10	6	60
Detroit	9	7	8	8	12	11	55	32
Washington	7	11	9	9	13	7	55	32
Chicago	5	8	6	11	12	3	65	41
St. Louis	6	11	9	7	11	13	63	45
New York	7	9	7	10	9	8	62	47
Cleveland	2	6	6	7	8	6	45	51
Games Lost	48	56	57	57	57	55	55

To-day's Schedule.

- New York vs. Boston, at Louisville. Philadelphia vs. Cleveland. Boston vs. Detroit. Boston vs. Chicago. Chicago vs. St. Louis. St. Louis vs. Detroit. Detroit vs. Cleveland. Cleveland vs. New York.

SENATORS AND SOX SPLIT EVEN.

Walter Johnson Extricates Bentley With One Pitched Ball.

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—The Senators and White Sox broke even in their double header today. The scores were 3 to 1 for Walter and 1 to 0 for the Sox, and then went to extra time in the ninth, when they tied in short order. The score:

NEW YORK 3; ST. LOUIS 1.

ST. LOUIS 3; CHICAGO 1.

The Browns opened the scoring in the third. Lavan hit to Maysel, who threw to the grand stand, and Lavan went to third. Agnew counted him with a hit to left.

The visitors got their two in the eighth. After Maysel had died to Walker Hartzell doubled, Cook tripled, and Clegg doubled. Then Austin threw out Mullin and Peckfield to Lavan. The New Yorks were tame all the way except for that brief instant when they tore off extra base hits with such abandon.

The Browns tied it in the eighth on hits by Pratt, Clarence Walker, who had a great day with the bat, and Howard.

In the tenth New York had a good chance, but a clumsy the game might have been called an account of darkness. With one out, Hartzell stroked. Cook then homered a grounder between first and second. Pratt had chased over to take the throw and Hartzell would have gone to third and Cook been safe at first, but Roy hadn't kicked the ball. The score:

NEW YORK 3; ST. LOUIS 1.

ST. LOUIS 3; CHICAGO 1.

The Browns opened the scoring in the third. Lavan hit to Maysel, who had a great day with the bat, and Howard.

In the tenth New York had a good chance, but a clumsy the game might have been called an account of darkness. With one out, Hartzell stroked. Cook then homered a grounder between first and second. Pratt had chased over to take the throw and Hartzell would have gone to third and Cook been safe at first, but Roy hadn't kicked the ball. The score:

NEW YORK 3; ST. LOUIS 1.

ST. LOUIS 3; CHICAGO 1.

The Browns opened the scoring in the third. Lavan hit to Maysel, who had a great day with the bat, and Howard.

In the tenth New York had a good chance, but a clumsy the game might have been called an account of darkness. With one out, Hartzell stroked. Cook then homered a grounder between first and second. Pratt had chased over to take the throw and Hartzell would have gone to third and Cook been safe at first, but Roy hadn't kicked the ball. The score:

NEW YORK 3; ST. LOUIS 1.

ST. LOUIS 3; CHICAGO 1.

The Browns opened the scoring in the third. Lavan hit to Maysel, who had a great day with the bat, and Howard.

In the tenth New York had a good chance, but a clumsy the game might have been called an account of darkness. With one out, Hartzell stroked. Cook then homered a grounder between first and second. Pratt had chased over to take the throw and Hartzell would have gone to third and Cook been safe at first, but Roy hadn't kicked the ball. The score:

NEW YORK 3; ST. LOUIS 1.

ST. LOUIS 3; CHICAGO 1.

The Browns opened the scoring in the third. Lavan hit to Maysel, who had a great day with the bat, and Howard.

In the tenth New York had a good chance, but a clumsy the game might have been called an account of darkness. With one out, Hartzell stroked. Cook then homered a grounder between first and second. Pratt had chased over to take the throw and Hartzell would have gone to third and Cook been safe at first, but Roy hadn't kicked the ball. The score:

NEW YORK 3; ST. LOUIS 1.

ST. LOUIS 3; CHICAGO 1.

The Browns opened the scoring in the third. Lavan hit to Maysel, who had a great day with the bat, and Howard.

In the tenth New York had a good chance, but a clumsy the game might have been called an account of darkness. With one out, Hartzell stroked. Cook then homered a grounder between first and second. Pratt had chased over to take the throw and Hartzell would have gone to third and Cook been safe at first, but Roy hadn't kicked the ball. The score:

NEW YORK 3; ST. LOUIS 1.

ST. LOUIS 3; CHICAGO 1.

The Browns opened the scoring in the third. Lavan hit to Maysel, who had a great day with the bat, and Howard.

In the tenth New York had a good chance, but a clumsy the game might have been called an account of darkness. With one out, Hartzell stroked. Cook then homered a grounder between first and second. Pratt had chased over to take the throw and Hartzell would have gone to third and Cook been safe at first, but Roy hadn't kicked the ball. The score:

NEW YORK 3; ST. LOUIS 1.

ST. LOUIS 3; CHICAGO 1.

The Browns opened the scoring in the third. Lavan hit to Maysel, who had a great day with the bat, and Howard.

In the tenth New York had a good chance, but a clumsy the game might have been called an account of darkness. With one out, Hartzell stroked. Cook then homered a grounder between first and second. Pratt had chased over to take the throw and Hartzell would have gone to third and Cook been safe at first, but Roy hadn't kicked the ball. The score:

NEW YORK 3; ST. LOUIS 1.

ST. LOUIS 3; CHICAGO 1.

The Browns opened the scoring in the third. Lavan hit to Maysel, who had a great day with the bat, and Howard.

In the tenth New York had a good chance, but a clumsy the game might have been called an account of darkness. With one out, Hartzell stroked. Cook then homered a grounder between first and second. Pratt had chased over to take the throw and Hartzell would have gone to third and Cook been safe at first, but Roy hadn't kicked the ball. The score:

NEW YORK 3; ST. LOUIS 1.

ST. LOUIS 3; CHICAGO 1.

The Browns opened the scoring in the third. Lavan hit to Maysel, who had a great day with the bat, and Howard.

In the tenth New York had a good chance, but a clumsy the game might have been called an account of darkness. With one out, Hartzell stroked. Cook then homered a grounder between first and second. Pratt had chased over to take the throw and Hartzell would have gone to third and Cook been safe at first, but Roy hadn't kicked the ball. The score:

NEW YORK 3; ST. LOUIS 1.

ST. LOUIS 3; CHICAGO 1.

The Browns opened the scoring in the third. Lavan hit to Maysel, who had a great day with the bat, and Howard.

In the tenth New York had a good chance, but a clumsy the game might have been called an account of darkness. With one out, Hartzell stroked. Cook then homered a grounder between first and second. Pratt had chased over to take the throw and Hartzell would have gone to third and Cook been safe at first, but Roy hadn't kicked the ball. The score:

NEW YORK 3; ST. LOUIS 1.

ST. LOUIS 3; CHICAGO 1.

The Browns opened the scoring in the third. Lavan hit to Maysel, who had a great day with the bat, and Howard.

In the tenth New York had a good chance, but a clumsy the game might have been called an account of darkness. With one out, Hartzell stroked. Cook then homered a grounder between first and second. Pratt had chased over to take the throw and Hartzell would have gone to third and Cook been safe at first, but Roy hadn't kicked the ball. The score:

NEW YORK 3; ST. LOUIS 1.

ST. LOUIS 3; CHICAGO 1.

The Browns opened the scoring in the third. Lavan hit to Maysel, who had a great day with the bat, and Howard.

In the tenth New York had a good chance, but a clumsy the game might have been called an account of darkness. With one out, Hartzell stroked. Cook then homered a grounder between first and second. Pratt had chased over to take the throw and Hartzell would have gone to third and Cook been safe at first, but Roy hadn't kicked the ball. The score:

NEW YORK 3; ST. LOUIS 1.

ST. LOUIS 3; CHICAGO 1.

The Browns opened the scoring in the third. Lavan hit to Maysel, who had a great day with the bat, and Howard.

In the tenth New York had a good chance, but a clumsy the game might have been called an account of darkness. With one out, Hartzell stroked. Cook then homered a grounder between first and second. Pratt had chased over to take the throw and Hartzell would have gone to third and Cook been safe at first, but Roy hadn't kicked the ball. The score:

NEW YORK 3; ST. LOUIS 1.

ST. LOUIS 3; CHICAGO 1.

The Browns opened the scoring in the third. Lavan hit to Maysel, who had a great day with the bat, and Howard.

In the tenth New York had a good chance, but a clumsy the game might have been called an account of darkness. With one out, Hartzell stroked. Cook then homered a grounder between first and second. Pratt had chased over to take the throw and Hartzell would have gone to third and Cook been safe at first, but Roy hadn't kicked the ball. The score:

NEW YORK 3; ST. LOUIS 1.

ST. LOUIS 3; CHICAGO 1.

The Browns opened the scoring in the third. Lavan hit to Maysel, who had a great day with the bat, and Howard.

In the tenth New York had a good chance, but a clumsy the game might have been called an account of darkness. With one out, Hartzell stroked. Cook then homered a grounder between first and second. Pratt had chased over to take the throw and Hartzell would have gone to third and Cook been safe at first, but Roy hadn't kicked the ball. The score:

NEW YORK 3; ST. LOUIS 1.

ST. LOUIS 3; CHICAGO 1.

The Browns opened the scoring in the third. Lavan hit to Maysel, who had a great day with the bat, and Howard.

In the tenth New York had a good chance, but a clumsy the game might have been called an account of darkness. With one out, Hartzell stroked. Cook then homered a grounder between first and second. Pratt had chased over to take the throw and Hartzell would have gone to third and Cook been safe at first, but Roy hadn't kicked the ball. The score:

NEW YORK 3; ST. LOUIS 1.

ST. LOUIS 3; CHICAGO 1.

The Browns opened the scoring in the third. Lavan hit to Maysel, who had a great day with the bat, and Howard.

In the tenth New York had a good chance, but a clumsy the game might have been called an account of darkness. With one out, Hartzell stroked. Cook then homered a grounder between first and second. Pratt had chased over to take the throw and Hartzell would have gone to third and Cook been safe at first, but Roy hadn't kicked the ball. The score:

NEW YORK 3; ST. LOUIS 1.

ST. LOUIS 3; CHICAGO 1.

The Browns opened the scoring in the third. Lavan hit to Maysel, who had a great day with the bat, and Howard.

In the tenth New York had a good chance, but a clumsy the game might have been called an account of darkness. With one out, Hartzell stroked. Cook then homered a grounder between first and second. Pratt had chased over to take the throw and Hartzell would have gone to third and Cook been safe at first, but Roy hadn't kicked the ball. The score:

NEW YORK 3; ST. LOUIS 1.

ST. LOUIS 3; CHICAGO 1.

The Browns opened the scoring in the third. Lavan hit to Maysel, who had a great day with the bat, and Howard.

In the tenth New York had a good chance, but a clumsy the game might have been called an account of darkness. With one out, Hartzell stroked. Cook then homered a grounder between first and second. Pratt had chased over to take the throw and Hartzell would have gone to third and Cook been safe at first, but Roy hadn't kicked the ball. The score:

NEW YORK 3; ST. LOUIS 1.

ST. LOUIS 3; CHICAGO 1.

The Browns opened the scoring in the third. Lavan hit to Maysel, who had a great day with the bat, and Howard.

In the tenth New York had a good chance, but a clumsy the game might have been called an account of darkness. With one out, Hartzell stroked. Cook then homered a grounder between first and second. Pratt had chased over to take the throw and Hartzell would have gone to third and Cook been safe at first, but Roy hadn't kicked the ball. The score:

NEW YORK 3; ST. LOUIS 1.

ST. LOUIS 3; CHICAGO 1.

The Browns opened the scoring in the third. Lavan hit to Maysel, who had a great day with the bat, and Howard.